KING'S BIBLIOGRAPHY OF

IRISH PICTORIAL POST CARDS.

In continuation of my series of Irish Researches, I now publish a limited first edition of a Bibliography of Irish Pictorial Post Cards. I shall gladly welcome any additional items, and particulars of new cards for my second and enlarged edition.

I have been in correspondence with the principal Publishers, and have incorporated the information so courteously given. A large number of special view cards of the smaller towns are on sale only locally: lists of these are requested.

As view cards of nearly all the sights and scenery are published. I would suggest series of the antiquities, old raths, old churches, round towers; famous persons and historic places; old MSS and Celtic ornaments, &c., with a descriptive line explanatory or a reference to some book.

I shall be glad to hear from collectors of Irish cards.

Address all communications to: J. KING,
53, Khedive-rd., Forestgate, London.
