

Maurice O'Connell—Well I think if you get factory arrangement it would be better fix it in twenty years.
 Fitzgerald—We have not the least chance of that.
 man—If we bring in water we can charge well of Tralee for half the cost, because they use as much water in Quill-street as they do workhouse.
 Power—I think you ought to try them once and act up in Mr. Roche's and Sir Maurice's situation.
 Roche—Well gentlemen I propose that a bill in favour of the Town Commissioners be introduced.
 Kenny—In the first place I object to the amount of it, because it is not fairly due.
 Roche said the the claim of the Commissioners at the rate £55 a year up to September 1 £50 to September '81.
 Kenny—There was no amicable settlement and it was thought that £50 was too high.
 Roche further discussion took place, after which Roche moved the adoption of the resolution.
 Power seconded it.
 Maurice O'Connell—Didn't you agree at one time to pay them fifty pounds.
 Kenny—No we never did.
 man—I had an interview with the Chairman of the Town Commissioners about that time, his conversation I thought £50 would be a fair sum but the matter fell through.
 Egan—The Guardians never agreed to it.
 man—Well gentlemen what will you do on the resolution.
 Roche—I propose it.
 Kenny—I move that we will have no more to do with the Town Commissioners.
 Egan—I second it.
 Roche—Take a division.
 further discussion took place and Colonel Kelly entered the room.
 Roche explained to him the nature of the division that was proceeding, and what he proposed.
 Colonel Spaight—I never heard a more extraordinary proposition in my life than that of the Commissioners offering to arbitrate, and in the hands of the arbitrators (hear hear). You entered into no agreement with the Town Commissioners to pay £50, but there was an intimation that they would require it, and I think the conduct of the Commissioners is so unbecomingly extraordinary, you should take some action once to provide a supply of water.
 Spaight—Appointing an arbitrator and trying to fix by naming the amount, he is to arbitrate for the most ridiculously absurd thing I ever saw in my life. How long would it take to get the matter fixed up again in the back yard?
 man—I think it is fixed already.
 Spaight—I would go on with it without any delay.
 man—That was suggested by Mr. Brick.
 Master (Mr. O'Sullivan) stated that one of the men in the mens yard was working in the order.
 Brick thought it would be better work it for a few hours in order to empty out the water lying in the tank.
 Master stated that this had been done, and that the tank was well cleaned.
 Brick said Mr. Roche had made a great explanation of the matter. There is a spring at the east end and until they made other arrangements they could employ a horse and take water from the tank.
 man—We better calculate what is legally due to the Commissioners.
 Colonel Spaight—You cannot legally pay more than the amount sanctioned the payment of.
 Kenny—Some members of the Board are of the opinion that there is nothing in the paper to that effect.
 man—I had a long conversation with the Chairman of the Town Commissioners, and I informed the Guardians of the terms here, but they would not consent to pay more than £35.
 Colonel Spaight said he never heard that they offered a resolution agreeing to pay a larger amount than £35.
 Colonel Rowan said a resolution was passed in favour of the £35. They got intimation from the Commissioners of their intention to raise it to £50, and it would be cut off if that sum was not paid. They made no agreement, but the fact of their using the water after the notice was evidence of their opinion that would make them liable for the amount of that sum.
 Brick—I agree entirely with what has fallen from Colonel Rowan.
 Maurice O'Connell—The very fact of the conversation between our Chairman and the Chairman of the Town Commissioners at least doesn't bind you legally it binds you morally to the extent of £35 from the well.

Adjourned
 K.S. 17/10/1884

TRALEE PETTY SESSIONS—Monday.

The usual weekly petty sessions was held on Monday. The magistrates present were—Messrs H. P. Cousins, R. M., and F. P. Brennan.

LABOURY OF LEAD JUICE.

A private in the "Dol (Gobias)" named George Jackson, was put forward in custody charged at the suit of Constable White with stealing a bottle of lime juice from the establishment of Mr. Stokes, The Square.

The coroner inquired that he arrested the prisoner on the 17th October, and found the "bottle of lime juice" in his possession, which he stole from Mr. Stokes' shop.

The prisoner, in reply to the magistrates, said he was willing to be tried in this court; he was under the influence of drink at the time.

The prisoner was sentenced to fourteen days with hard labour.

LABOURY OF KOWL.

Patrick Dundon was charged, in custody, at the suit of Sergeant O'Neill with stealing two ducks, the property of Mrs. Seamuson Saturday last.

The witness, Mrs. Seamuson, deposed that on Saturday she shot two ducks in a basket near Mr. O'Connell's shop door, and went into the shop before she went in she asked Dundon to look after them for her, and he took them and saw Dundon "take up the ducks and put them on his wife; she went out shortly after and got Dundon arrested."

The prisoner was sentenced to fourteen days imprisonment with hard labour.

Adjourned.

DEATH OF THE REV. M. HERLIHY, C.C.

On yesterday the painful and startling intelligence reached Tralee of the unexpected death of Father Maurice Herlihy, one of the curates of the parish of Castleisland. The deceased, who might be about 42 years of age, was a native of Farranfore. He entered Killarney Seminary as a student in the year '69, and after a course of four years study there became a student of Maynooth College in the year '64. After a course of six years he was ordained priest in 1870. His first mission was Milltown, his next Daugh, and his more recent ones were Auniscuil, Lixnaw, and Castleisland. In Lixnaw he aided materially the building of the creditable convent erected there for a section of the Order of Presentation Nuns, and to the last took a lively interest in its welfare. In Castleisland, where he had been located for a year previous to his death, he was a favourite as an earnest, zealous priest, and his death, under the sudden and appalling circumstances of it, was a great shock to the people of that parish. On Wednesday evening at two p.m. he recited the Rosary for an assembled congregation in the new church, and gave benediction of the Blessed Sacrament immediately after. After returning home and about half-past three or a quarter to four he was seized with apoplexy while sitting in an arm chair in his room. Dr. Nolan was called in, and on his recommendation Dr. Harild was also called, and in response to an urgent wire, Dr. Hayes was soon present from Tralee. But medical skill proved of no avail, and after several intermittent fits of convulsions he died about ten o'clock at night without (at least apparently) having recovered consciousness from the first. On today at 11 a.m. High Mass for the soul of the deceased was celebrated in the church of Castleisland where the remains reposed, on a catafalque in the nave. A large number of the local clergy attended the obsequies. The funeral procession and burial took place immediately after the conclusion of the High Mass.

METROPOLITAN ITEMS.

(FROM OUR DUBLIN CORRESPONDENT.)

The following circular was sent to the different branches of the National League throughout Ireland by the Organising Committee, with a view of their taking an active part to secure for the Labourer's whatever benefit is derivable from Act in its present crippled state:—

The Irish National League,
 32 Upper Sackville street,
 Dublin, October 6th, 1884.

DEAR SIR,—I am directed by the Organising Committee of the National League to bring under the notice of members in Ireland the necessity of

Wish
 Mr. J. O'
 to apply
 before us
 what we seeing any all the These
 point out Heat a regard deficiency appears in the after has
 they can separate applicants
 were pre I have boats of the pr
 His R I was I had you Mary)
 sent out
 A jury
 The p
 Mrs. M
 I know th
 lane with (writing) party in some be society, c at 5 o'cl
 quite an given up
 office in one time
 Mr. W am an at
 the pri 20th of
 de. ; 11
 office: 11
 party she
 from a w
 for them
 Court
 I went
 I want
 goods &
 them to his own produce
 sheets, c
 -rested
 This c
 His H
 say I Priest
 the Irish O'Her
 The J After
 across a
 She w with the Cere
 forward
 Hamp
 the pri
 erty we
 How Hung McG
 a shop
 night of
 into my covering
 the lam
 had ear
 had an much a O'ne
 prisoner
 possible
 Yes, I
 at your money
 The J
 like a bid.
 O'ne
 is a see his real without

Wish
 Mr. J. O'
 to apply
 before us
 what we seeing any all the These
 point out Heat a regard deficiency
 appears
 in the
 after has
 they can separate applicants
 were pre I have boats of the pr
 His R I was I had
 you Mary)
 sent out
 A jury
 The p
 Mrs. M
 I know th
 lane with (writing)
 party in some be society, c
 at 5 o'cl
 quite an
 given up
 office in
 one time
 Mr. W am an at
 the pri 20th of
 de. ; 11
 office: 11
 party she
 from a w
 for them
 Court
 I went
 I want
 goods &
 them to his own
 produce
 sheets, c
 -rested
 This c
 His H
 say I Priest
 the Irish O'Her
 The J After
 across a
 She w
 with the Cere
 forward
 Hamp
 the pri
 erty we
 How Hung McG
 a shop
 night of
 into my covering
 the lam
 had ear
 had an
 much a O'ne
 prisoner
 possible
 Yes, I
 at your
 money
 The J
 like a
 bid.
 O'ne
 is a see
 his real
 without

to make this collection in person
 the first regular personal collection yet made Ireland for the O'Connell Church, and, indeed, short formal reports undertaken by myself for it, I naturally attached no small importance to it. The amount realized, £37 17s. 3d., in the presence of the good collection of things, speaks trumpet equal for the great success achieved. But the manner of the collection evoked in us by all, with unhesitatingly, vastly enhanced the importance and importance of my mission to Kenmare, presents as people do, with each other and directed as if by one heart and spirit. It could be said a success equal to this is,— "Well done, well done, and well done the lip of every man, woman and child, from the venerable and noble hearted man some little child of three years, to the old men, with beaming faces and outstretched hands, in fact, to every man, woman and child, and
 of my gentle beholding, in addition to her general personal contributions—many who wanted to be their own following me into other parts of the county,
 our officers—men who had left home at an ear ly hour, leaving their duties in the hands of their families or servants for me—a member of the ecclesiastical community to me. It is our call to us at three o'clock and we will all be glad to see you—all with, without exception, pour into their generous gifts into my hands; and in the midst of all this ovation, which would gladden the heart of Leo XIII. himself, nothing left for me to do for all was done before me, but to bless and soothe as I went along from house to house. (O
 my dear children, gifts of love will be yours forever, noble priests and people of Kenmare.)

It is a curious coincidence that the very day, the 20th October, on which I made this collection in Kenmare for the O'Connell Church, was the anniversary of 20 years ago, that 20,000 Glasnevin men headed by the good and great "Father John" marched trium phantly from Kesh, to attend the great O'Connell meeting in Killybegs, when Father John took his part as one of the great orators, and to speak, in order that he and his battalion should take the foremost place at the meeting.
 I have from some what attended, and they are just proud of the fact. How are others, Matt Shaw, P.
 O'Sullivan, David Caherty, Florence O'Sullivan, Eugene Courtney; and as I said to one of them, as to all may they live to see the outcome of the meeting a nation's tribute to the great champion his heroic glory and the idol of that meeting of the men of Kerry may they live to see it stone rolled and "red board like the coasts" of his beloved Kerry, the O'Connell Memorial Church of Holy Cross, Carcaven, which ought to be and will be the glory of the land and the pride of the Irish race
 the world over.

Your faithful servant,
 T. CANON BRENNAN.

Cabertown, Oct. 13th, 1884.

THE KEMMARE COLLECTION.

| | £ | s | d. |
|---|----|----|----|
| The Parochial Clergy | 15 | 0 | 0 |
| The Rev. Mdcr Abbes, Convent Poor | | | |
| Clares | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| T Townsend reuch, J.P. "For preservation of the Great Liberator's Birth-place." | 3 | 0 | 0 |
| J O'Brien Coreay, J.P. | 4 | 0 | 0 |
| D Hogan, Shearman, | 10 | 0 | 0 |
| William Horca, | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Miss Fitzmaurici Donnelly, | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Daniel Mahony, | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| William McCarly, Hotel, | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| J Minnear, Mayor National Bank, | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Mrs. William Mahony, | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| D McCarthy, | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Eugene Courtney, | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| R. L. Constabulary, | 0 | 15 | 0 |
| Mrs Victoria O'Lea, | 0 | 15 | 0 |
| T O'Sullivan, | 0 | 10 | 0 |
| Mrs Coffey, | 0 | 10 | 0 |
| Mrs Stokes, | 0 | 10 | 0 |
| John Brosman, | 0 | 10 | 0 |
| Mrs John O'Ben, | 0 | 10 | 0 |
| Laurence Egan, | 0 | 10 | 0 |
| John O'Connell, | 0 | 10 | 0 |
| Thomas Guthan, | 0 | 10 | 0 |
| John Hogan, | 0 | 10 | 0 |
| Michael Clifton, | 0 | 10 | 0 |
| Richard O'Sullivan, Guertmullin, | 0 | 10 | 0 |
| Mark Spillane, | 0 | 7 | 0 |
| D McCarthy, | 0 | 7 | 0 |
| John Heamesey, | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| Florence Wals, | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| Matt & Mrs Sore, | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| Mr George Sorell, | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| P J O'Sullivan, | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| Timothy O'Sullivan, | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| Florence O'Sullivan, | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| Mrs Moynihan, | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| Mark O'Shea, | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| John O'Neill, | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| Denis O'Sullivan, | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| Mrs M Carthy, | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| Daniel O'Sullivan, | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| At each of M A Shea, Miss Mary O'Conner | 0 | 5 | 0 |

172-8